STRUKTURA 2015
Luhačovice
Hotel Adamantino
22. - 25. 6. 2015

Annual meeting of the Czech and Slovak Association 2015 is organized for the first time in Luhačovice and includes the 11th Student symposium and competition with 19 contributions and a course on the use of groups in crystallography. There is 38 lectures in the main programme and over 80 registered participants should attend the meeting. Three full papers can be found at the beginning of this issue of Materials Structure followed by nearly all abstracts of lectures. This is already the third issue of the journal in 2015 and two more are planned - for the conference Aperiodic 2015 and HEC meeting, both in September.
